DISEASE AND DEATH ENSUE

Sad Ending of the Vessel Sophie Sutherland Expedition.

Many of the Men Dead and the Survivors in the German Hospital at Samoa.

Sometime in 1897 a man named Sorensen succeeded in beguiling fifteen San Franciscans into chartering a vessel and sailing with him to an island in the South Pacific which he called the Adam-less Eden. It was a land of promise in more ways than one, so he said. There being no men there, and plenty of gold which the adventurers could easily get.

The scheme was to take possession of the island. The men were foolish enough to take Sorensen's word for everything and sailed for the island and after a while arrived at Apia, where the ship, Sophie Sutherland, remained about a fortnight and then sailed for Savu, where she remained four days.

It seems that Sorensen was recognized while at Apia as a man who had had a difference of opinion with the colonial authorities which had caused social relations to be suspended for some ten years.
This was reported to the party, but they had faith in their leader, gold was in prospect and they went on their way healthy and happy.

The first island of the Solomons reached was Florida Island, Taluge harbor, where Sorensen had stated gold was in abundance.
There it was ascertained that the stories told in Apia respecting the promoter were true.

They went to several of the other islands and finally decided to land Sorensen. This was done. Four of the party—Greenwood, Gings, Cunath and Smadeke—also remained, as rich copper deposits were found.
The rest of the ship's company were attacked by fever and the captain decided to sail for San Francisco. When she left there were only three men able to move about. When a week out the captain, seeing everybody getting worse, decided for Samoa for medical assistance. They arrived back in Apia on May 11. During the three week four of the men—Kohn, Nicholson, Goldsmith and De Witt died and were buried at sea.

Those who reached Apia presented a terrible appearance. One of them who was very ill, unable to move, had not been washed for two months. The crew were placed in the German hospital, where Dr. Funk attended them. The names of those who reached Apia are: McLean, Higgins, Lampe, Berge, Headberg and Olsen.

Police Court.

There was quite a gathering of interested parties in court during the hearing of the cases of the belligerents in the row last Thursday evening.

Edward Frago, a truant, was committed to the Reform school for six months by Judge Peterson yesterday.

The cases of Kauio pio and Chas. Kau, charged with assault and battery on Kauoiaes, were not prosecuted.

The assault and battery case against G. B. Kapule was dismissed.

Pianos.

All styles of Krueger pianos for sale, for cash or on the instalment plan. Old instruments exchanged for new ones. Pianos rented, tuned and repaired. Telephone

Rapidly Disappearing.

The supply of the justly celebrated Seattle Bock Beer is rapidly disappearing in town. Lovers of this nutritious spring beverage can obtain it for a limited time at the Criterion Saloon.

Circuit Court.

Chas. Kahoe has been discharged as guardian of the person and estate of Jas. K. Kahoe, his son, who has reached his majority.

If you want gasoline in a hurry ring up Telephone 907.

VIRTUE! REWARD!

"Virtue has its own reward!"

Rear Admiral Dewey has done himself proud in the Philippines and earned for himself the deserving title of "Rear Admiral."

This store is also anxious to earn a deserving title from the public; a title of merit, that carries with it the name of having meritorious goods at popular prices.

In order to do this it is necessary to be more than careful in the selections of goods—be cautious—knowing what the public tastes are we have used the precaution to import only first-class qualities in designs and materials such as are salable in the best markets of the world.
No dead stock is wanted or bought by us, no matter what the inducements. Still goods will sometimes accumulate faster than anticipated—they must be disposed of even at a sacrifice—that's what we are doing now—sacrificing a few dollars—you derive the benefit.

Don't fail to visit this store during the renovation sale—you will agree with us that it pay you to do so.
